

More delights:

More thankyous for these:

Crib collection £270

SPUC collection £387.

These are excellent amounts.

In addition – thank you to Hungerford for their Christmas offerings to the priest of £890.

Last week's figure was Wantage only.

The 2 priests who help us have been given the Lambourn collection to share.

And another word of thanks to those parishioners who attended Brynley Morris' funeral last week. Appreciated.

Bishop Philip's invitation:

Those engaged couples who are due to marry this year are invited to join the Bishop for a breakfast and blessing on Saturday March 17th. 9.15 start, and finish about 11.45am. Bring your engagement rings along with you please ! This takes place at the Cathedral of St. John at Portsmouth. Please let me know if you can go.

For you to chew over:

Another famous quote from St. Augustine:

“What is time ?

If no one asks me I know what it is.

But if someone asks me, I do not know”.

For your information:

Mrs. Agnes Healey left the parish recently (OLOL, Hungerford) and we miss her.

Her new address is –

16, Reids Piece, Purton, Swindon SN5 4AX.

Tel: 01793 293249.

We thank her for her support.

Sing Messiah: at St. J.V.

Come and Sing Messiah (proceeds for charity) – anyone can come along: Sunday 4th February: Doors open 2pm. Rehearsal start 2.30pm and Public Performance 3.30pm. Tickets and all other details – see porch notices please.

A good occasion to join in the masterwork !

Change: local Council of Churches:

Tess Heron is stepping down as our parish rep and Rosemary Stickland has volunteered to take her place. I am very indebted to Tess for many years of hard work, and thank Rosemary for taking her place.
